

Narratives and Memories of Industrial Work and Heritage

STICK Conference 2025

Friday 31st October, Engine Shed, Stirling

Registration & Welcome

10:15 Registration
10:30 Welcome

Session A

10:40 Title TBC. Dr Andy Clark, Lecturer in Scottish History, University of Stirling
11:00 Capturing Scottish Industrial Whaling Memories. Helen Balfour, Assistant Curator, South Georgia Museum
11:20 Q&A
11:30 BREAK (tea & coffee - 20 mins)

Session B

11:50 Tales of Trawlers and TGB: Preserving Working-Class Maritime Voices through Oral History. Amber-Louise Thornborrow, Visitor Services Assistant, Scottish Maritime Museum
12:10 Forgotten Routes: Reclaiming North-East Scotland's Mail Coach Networks. Rosa Ó Caoimh, Independent Researcher
12:30 Using Oral Histories to Highlight Industrial Memories Online. Charlie Adbry, MSc Museum Studies Student, New Lanark World Heritage Site
12:50 Q&A
13:00 LUNCH (1 hour)

Session C

14:00 Decorators of Portobello: In their own words. Nicky Bird, Artist
14:20 "These Were Scotland's Industries": Hope MacDougall and the Preservation of Working Lives in the Highlands and Islands. Shannen Provan-Sloan, Collections Development Officer, The MacDougall of Dunollie Preservation Trust
14:40 Q&A and Comfort Break

Session D

15:05 Flooring the World: The Fife Linoleum Industry. Lily Barnes, Collections Curator, OnFife (Fife Cultural Trust)
15:25 The Landscape as museum: how the earth keeps industrial memory active, and verdant! Rosie Shackleton, North Lanarkshire Council and Industrial Museums Scotland
15:45 Q&A and closing remarks